Notice of Privacy Practices (continued)

1. Uses or disclosures which do not require your written authorization

Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations (TPO)

We use or disclose your health information to carry out your treatment; to obtain payment for your treatment; and to conduct health care operations. For example:

- For treatment, we use your health information to plan, coordinate, and provide your care. We disclose your health information for treatment purposes to physicians and other health care professionals outside our agency who are involved in your care.
- For payment, we use your health information to prepare documentation required by your insurance company or HMO or by Medicare. We disclose that part of your health information that these organizations require to pay us.
- For health care operations, we use or disclose your health information, for example, to improve the quality of our services, to plan better ways of treating patients, and to evaluate staff performance.

Uses or Disclosures of Your Health Information to Which You May Object:

We may use or disclose your health information for the following purposes, unless you ask us not to:

- Facility directories. We maintain a resident directory including, for each resident, name, location in our facility, health condition in general terms, and religious affiliation. We may disclose this information to people who ask for you by name. We will make known your religious affiliation only to clergy.
- *Informing family and friends. We may disclose your health information to family, friends, or others identified by you who are involved in your care.
- Assistance in disaster relief efforts.
- For fundraising activities. We may contact you or your family for fundraising purposes. If you do not wish to be contacted for this purpose, please contact Donna Clark, NHA and privacy Official and indicate that you do not wish to receive fundraising communication from us.
- Confirming appointments.
- Informing you about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.
